

A.T.I.A. – October 2009, Schaumburg
Assistive Technology Industry Association
- A Sampling of Information Presented –

www.aacfundinghelp.com

A.A.C. funding help with resources, report coach, funding tips www.aactechconnect.com

Simplify AAC evaluations/device comparisons using the Device Assistant, fee per month, approximately 100 devices represented bias-free, search by key features needed

www.abilityjobs.com, www.abilitymagazine.com

Job postings and resume bank for job seekers with disabilities, ABILITY magazine

www.aim.cast.org

A.I.M. (Accessible Instructional Materials) Consortium

www.assistivetech.com

Search “funding packet document” to see examples of checklists, cover sheets, evaluation worksheets and more

www.bookshare.org

Digital accessible books for those with print disabilities

www.acctinc.ca

Adaptive computer control technology – USB Sip and Puff mouse www.aisquared.com/spotlight

Victor Reader Stream to listen to books, Pebble handheld magnifier, SenseView Duo – one device combines distance and close-up cameras

www.augresources.com

Lots of low-tech solutions www.baltimorecityschools.org/boardmaker/adapted_library.asp

Long-time favorite website for information/resources regarding adapting books

www.bowlingramps.com

Switch-activated bowling ball release on ramp

www.browsealoud.com

Provides reading support by reading online content aloud

www.cogain.org

Eye control technology

www.cognitopia.com

Icon-based personal organizer called the Picture Planner – picture-based scheduling system using pictures instead of words

www.cyranocommunicator.com

Small, easy to use communication system – touch screen, speaker, built-in camera www.gwmicro.com

Window-Eyes: comprehensive software for access to Windows applications www.humanware.com

Deaf-blind communicator for TTY, face-to-face, text to cell phone www.jabbla.com

Communication, mounting and access solutions

www.jouse.com

Joy-stick operated USB mouse that you control with mouth www.LSSproducts.com

Great variety of AT solutions for various needs, many low-tech www.marblesoft.com

“Click to Read: Life Skills” software (Aimee Solutions) – to be released soon - more stories to come

www.MaxiAids.com

Huge selection of items to support independent living www.mobility4kids.com

Go-kart solutions for grass/dirt/sand www.news-2-you.com

Online newspaper with pictorial supports and other activities

www.plextalk.com

Book player with Daisy navigation www.practicalatsolutions.com/CTGATIA09NewsFlash.html

Overview of A.T.I.A. and C.T.G. resources from Phyl Macomber

www.qiat.org

Quality Indicators for Assistive Technology Services – listserv, matrices, very valuable information for school staff/teams

www.symbolstix.com

Online symbol subscription service

www.tedpa.org

Telecommunications Equipment Distribution Program Association

www.widgit.com

Software and symbols for inclusion

<http://aac-rerc.psu.edu/>

Rehabilitation research center information in literacy, funding, other information

<http://education.uncc.edu/access>

Helpful information and articles on curriculum projects